- b) The AKUS/AKDENİZ YÖS Executive Council carries out activities which include; submission of applications for the International Student Examination, preparation of the list of candidates and examination documents, and the announcement of results.
- c) The examination will be held on a date to be determined by the Senate. A Guide to The International Student Examination will be published on the official Akdeniz University website between the dates when the website is open for applications.
- ç) The Examination consists of a Basic Learning Skills Test and an AKUS/AKDENİZ YÖS - Turkish Test, both of which are prepared individually as multiple-choice questions. The Basic Learning Skills Test includes 80 questions, consisting of questions on General Ability (45 questions), Mathematics (30 questions), and Geometry (5 questions). The AKUS/AKDENİZ YÖS -Turkish Test consists of 60 questions in Turkish. The aim of this test is to measure the level of the candidate's Turkish Proficiency. The Basic Learning Skills Test results are only taken into consideration during the Placement Process.
- d) The results of applications will be announced on the official Akdeniz University website on the dates specified in the academic calendar.
- e) The AKUS/AKDENİZ YÖS Examination Results are valid for 1 (one) academic year following the date on which the examination was taken.
- g) The AKUS/AKDENİZ YÖS application fee is determined by the Akdeniz University Administrative Committee for each year.
- ğ) Any objections to the results of the AKUS/AKDENİZ YÖS Examination can be accepted within the first 5 (five) days after the results have been announced. Written objections addressed to the Akdeniz University Rectorate can be submitted either in person or by email to ogrenci@akdeniz.edu.tr. Objections will be resolved by the AKUS/AKDENİZ YÖS Executive Council.

Preference Procedures

Article 9 – (1) Candidates must complete the preference procedures within the dates when the website is open for preferences. If the procedures are not completed between the specified dates, the candidate concerned will not be allocated a place on any academic programme.

(2) Candidates can apply for a maximum of 10 diploma programmes.

(3) Candidates are eligible to select their preferred diploma programmes from those on the quota list, if their scores on the different sections of the examination are compatible with the requirements of the programme.

(3) Candidates who achieve a minimum standard score of 45 in the relevant section of the Basic Learning Skills Test may be eligible to select a preferred faculty or school which provides undergraduate degree diploma programmes.

(4) Candidates who achieve a minimum standard score of 35 in the relevant section of the Basic Learning Skills Test may be eligible to select a preferred faculty or school which provides undergraduate degree diploma programmes.

(5) Candidates who achieve a minimum standard score of 45 in the relevant section of the Basic Learning Skills Test may be eligible to select a preferred diploma programme which requires participation in a Special Talent Examination.

Assessment of Preferences and Replacement Procedures

Article 10 (1) Assessment of applications and replacement candidates will be carried out by Akdeniz University.

(2) The Basic Learning Skills Test results are only taken into consideration during the Placement Process.

(3) The raw scores obtained from the number of correct answers given by the candidate are converted to standard scores with a mean of 50 and a standard deviation of 10. 3 different score types are assessed, namely Mathematics, General Ability and Equal Weight scores.

(4) Applications will not be assessed if the candidate submitting the application has either gain a score lower than the minimum score defined in Article 9/3, Article 9/4, and Article 9/5, or does not meet the requirements set out in Article 7/1.

(5) Candidates will be selected by classifying the relevant scores from the AKUS/AKDENİZ YÖS Examination results from the highest to the lowest in accordance with the published quotas and the order of their preferences. In the assessment and classification process, in the case of candidates achieving equal scores in the Mathematics section, the candidates' Equal Weight score will be taken into consideration; in the case of candidates achieving equal scores in the General Ability section, the Equal Weight score will be taken into consideration; in the case of candidates achieving equal scores in the Equal Weight section, the Mathematics score will be taken into consideration.

In cases where the score in each category (Mathematics, General Ability, Equal Weight) is still equal between the candidates, the youngest candidate will be placed according to his/her preference.

(6) Regarding programmes which require participation in a special talent examination from candidates; applications will be assessed according to the criteria which are listed in the directives of the programme concerned. The results of the AKUS/AKDENİZ YÖS examination and the results of the special talent examination will be taken into consideration, as well as the order of preference which was submitted by the candidate. Candidates who apply for these programmes must have reached the required standard in the International Students Examination as defined in Article 9/5.

(7) After the Placement process has been completed, additional placement procedures for the available places in the quotas will be carried out for candidates who have not been placed on any diploma programme.

(8) The additional placement process will not be carried out for programmes which require participation in a special talent examination.

(9) Candidates who meet the published application requirements, and who have taken part in the preference process, are not guaranteed to be given a place on a diploma programme due to other factors being taken into consideration. The additional placement process will only be carried out once, and no further places will be allocated within the published quotas.

Education and Training

Article 11 – (1) Turkish is the main language of instruction at Akdeniz University, with the exception of programmes which are listed as providing courses with 100% of the course content in a foreign language or languages.
